Human Beliefs and Values in Incredible Asia

South and Central Asia in Focus
Country Profiles and Thematic Analyses
Based on the AsiaBarometer Survey of 2005

Edited by
Takashi Inoguchi
Table of Contents

Acknowledgements (Takashi Inoguchi) .............................................................. 5
List of Contributors ....................................................................................... 7
Fact Sheet ....................................................................................................... 11

Part I Country Profile Analysis

Introduction .................................................................................................... 15

South Asia

Chapter 1 Bangladesh: From an “International Basket Case” to a Basketful of Hope and Despair ...................................................................................... 19

Chapter 2 Swimming in the Tide of Globalization: Bhutan as Seen through the Life of a Bhutanese in Thimphu .......................................................... 39

Chapter 3 India: Change and Continuity among Urban Indian Families .......... 65

Chapter 4 Pakistan: Institutional Underdevelopment/Underperformance and Reliance on Private Trust Networks: Pakistan through the AsiaBarometer Survey ......................................................................... 85

Chapter 5 Maldives: Maldives at a Political and Economic Crossroads .......... 111

Chapter 6 Nepal: Nepali Society and Politics: Conflict and Change ............... 125

Chapter 7 Sri Lanka: Regional Discontent of Development Disparities ........... 147

Central Asia

Chapter 8 Afghanistan: The Lives of Ordinary Afghans ................................. 163

Takashi Inoguchi

Imtiaz Ahmed

Dorji Penjore

Sanjay Kumar

Faisal Bari & Adeel Faheem

Purnendra Jain

Krishna Hachhethu

Sirimal Abeyratne

Muhammad Jamshed Khan
Chapter 9  Kazakhstan: Rich in Natural Resources, Poor in Social Capital ................. 179
Nargis Kassenova

Chapter 10  Kyrgyzstan: Making Difficult Choices: Nation-State
Building or Democratization? Conflicting Logics in Kyrgyz’s Transition .................. 199
Temirlan Moldogaziev

Chapter 11  Mongolia: Daily Lifestyle and Political Attitudes of Ordinary Mongolians ......................................................................................... 221
Turutogt K. Janar

Chapter 12  Tajikistan: Tajikistan—Bridge Between North and South ....................... 249
Muzaffardjon R. Khudoikulov

Chapter 13  Turkmenistan: Trajectories and Public Choices of Political, Economic, and Social Development in Turkmenistan ....................................... 269
Timur Dadabaev

Chapter 14  Uzbekistan: How Does Transition Work in Central Asia? Coping with Ideological, Economic and Value System Changes in Uzbekistan ............. 293
Timur Dadabaev

Part II Cross-Cultural Thematic Analysis

Chapter 15  Quantifying Social Capital in Central and South Asia:
Are There Democratic, Developmental, and Regionalizing Potentials? ............ 327
Takashi Inoguchi and Zen-U Lucian Hotta

Chapter 16  Data Analysis of the AsiaBarometer Survey: Methodological Discussions and Exploratory Data Analysis ........................................................................... 351
Kazufumi Manabe

Chapter 17  Leadership, Democracy, and the Impact of Religion: An Analysis of the AsiaBarometer and World Values Surveys ............................................ 367
Matthew Carlson

Chapter 18  Religiosity in Asia: A Preliminary Analysis of the 2005 AsiaBarometer .... 383
Steven R. Reed

Appendix

AsiaBarometer Survey 2005 Overview ............................................................... 397
Questionnaire (English master) ........................................................................... 399
Index of Questionnaire ...................................................................................... 423